4. Food bank re-usable bulk container behavior + Love My Mug project collaboration.
 - a. Next week Leat will have a meeting with the UVSS food bank coordinator (Jasmine), and we will decide if we can work on a collaborative project together to drive the 're-use' and reduce-plastic cultural change. The idea is that each student will get a card that we will stamp on each time they bring their own containers for all bulk food items (excluding plastic bags), and on the 10th successful time, they will get a free mug.
